Damage suit defendants now include councilmen

By BRENT MACEY

The city of Bay St. Louis is still facing a $750,000 federal law suit filed by Kelvin Schulz, owner of the Star Theatre on South Beach Boulevard, in December of 1979.

Schulz contends his constitutional rights, including the First, Fourth, Fifth and 14th Amendments, were violated when Bay St. Louis Police closed the theatre in December of 1979 during a showing of the movie 'Richard Pryor in Concert'.

The original complaint filed by Schulz, listed Bay St. Louis Mayor Larry Bennett, Police Chief Douglas Williams, former Assistant Police Chief Frank Hess, and Policemen Alton Benoit and Gordon Campbell as defendants.

That complaint was later amended in November of 1980 to include those defendants plus members of the Bay St. Louis City Council: Wilmer E. Seymour, James C. Thriftley III, Harry J. Farve, Fred Wagner, and Peter J. Benvenuti.

The amended complaint, was drawn up by lawyers for the plaintiff because of actions by the Bay St. Louis City Council and mayor which denied the plaintiff a privilege license to open a convenience store, David Cobb, attorney for the plaintiff, said recently. "That separate incident occurred several months after the theatre was closed," Cobb said.

Count II of the amended complaint which deals with this issue states Schulz, in May of 1980, filed an application with the Bay St. Louis City Clerk to obtain a privilege license in order to open a convenience store on the property of the Star Theatre.

The Planning and Zoning Commission recommended the Bay St. Louis City Council approve that request during a meeting of the council July 22, 1980.

Minutes of the Bay St. Louis City Council meeting held July 22, 1980 show the council did approve the recommendation by the Planning and Zoning Commission to grant Schulz a privilege license to open a convenience store on the Star Theatre property.

However, when Schulz approached the mayor on July 26, and again July 1, to obtain that privilege license, the mayor 'refused' to grant Schulz the license, the amended complaint states.

This action according to the amended complaint, is 'in direct contradiction to the order passed by the city council.' The city council, during a meeting Aug. 6, 1980, later rescinded the motion they had approved during the July 22, 1980 meeting.

This action, as stated in the amended complaint, was 'without good reason or process of law.'

The amended complaint continues: 'The defendants by their arbitrary and capricious conduct, have unlawfully and depriving the plaintiff of his property, profits, good-will and ultimately all sources of income, without due process of law.'

Schulz is currently seeking $250,000 actual damages and $500,000 punitive damages. A total of $750,000, in a suit which now names both the officials in the Bay St. Louis Police Department and all members of the city council including Mayor Bennett.

Count I of the amended complaint refers to members of the Bay St. Louis Police Department and Count II names the city council members.

Mayor Bennett is the only person named in both Counts.

A pre-trial date set for March 9, 1981 failed to result in establishing a trial date for the case because U.S. District Court Judge Walter Nixon asked for further briefs from the defense before ruling on any of the motions, Cobb said.

Walter J. Phillips, attorney with Gex, Gex and Phillips law firm of Bay St. Louis, 'one of the counsels for the defense, said the defense will be filing additional motions in the near future.

He would not disclose the nature of those motions.

The defense has filed two motions against the complaint issued by the plaintiff.

Both motions are public record.

One motion, a motion to dismiss, is based on Count II of the amended complaint and states the claim is a 'non-federal claim' over which the court has no jurisdiction.

The motion also states Count II does not derive from a 'common' notion of operative fact, 'with respect to the cause of action stated in Count I.'

The motion also contends Count II is a 'thinly veiled attempt by the plaintiff to show some sort of official policy of harassment directed against the plaintiff, a 'frivolous' assertion since all five members of the city council were named in Count II when in fact Thriftley voted nay, and Benvenuti and Seymour were absent from the meeting.

The motion further states the amended complaint which names five city councilmen in the proceedings is improper since allegations stated in Count II constitute an entirely separate and distinct cause of action from that stated in the original complaint, and it allegedly proved and stated that the cause of action set out in Count II results in needless complexity in the proceedings.

A second motion was submitted for summary judgment and states that the plaintiff has failed to establish that time consumed for discovery by the defense was 'undue delay' since the defense has taken steps to expedite the case. The motion also states that the plaintiff has failed to establish that the defense has been unjustly enriched by the plaintiff's failure to pay for the cost of discovery.

Westinghouse plant construction date remains a question

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Westinghouse Electric Corp. has selected contractors to build its furniture plant north of Pass Christian, but company officials will not reveal a construction start-up date.

Company executives almost one year ago announced construction 'would begin soon' at a 185-acre site in the northwest quadrant of the I-10 and Mingo Avenue interchange.

But several months later

Westinghouse officials reported economic conditions would delay plant construction for about one year.

James Lewis, named last year as plant manager of the proposed Harrison County operation, was unavailable for comment Wednesday at his Grand Rapids, Mich. office.

Official justifies US-90 tree cutting

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

A Mississippi State Highway Department official Wednesday listed driver safety as primary justification for cutting several massive pine trees along US-90 near Pearlinton.

T. H. Moody of the Lyman Community-highway department maintenance superintendent for Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River Counties—stated, "My first concern is people who travel over our highways."

"My main interest is highway safety and providing a smooth riding surface and good drainage," he said.

"What I consider beautiful is a child growing up and rearing a family without facing a tragedy resulting from a serious traffic accident," Moody

Trees.....

Gov. William Winter, Southern District Highway Commissioner Bob Joiner, the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, The Sea Coast Echo and several state officials recently received calls from southwest Hancock County residents complaining of large pines being cut down along the south shoulder of US-90 just west of the Whites Bayou bridge.

Moody stated, "I wish those residents would have called me because I appreciate comments and suggestions regarding our work."

"We cut approximately 11 large pines near Whites Bayou—four were dead, three were diseased and the others were close to the highway and leaning over the roadway," he explained.

"A utility company had trimmed limbs from the trees which caused the pines to lean and hang over the highway creating a hazardous condition," Moody stated.

The highway superintendent further explained that a storm could blow the leaning trees over the highway blocking the entire roadway.

Moody said he plans to cut several other large trees along US-90 which he believes are also safety hazards.

Bay candidates address issues

By BRENT MACEY

Candidates for the Bay St. Louis election met in the St. Rose de Lima School cafeteria Monday evening to discuss their interpretation of the major issues, what each could offer voters of Bay St. Louis if elected, and why they felt qualified.

Each of the nine qualified candidates and one unqualified candidate addressed an audience of approximately 70 citizens for a maximum 10 minutes and then answered questions from that audience.

Issues raised by the candidates ranged from increasing recreational areas in the city to solving existing problems with gas, sewer and water distribution.

Victor Frankiewicz

Victor Frankiewicz, seeking the office of mayor, said he was a native of Bay St. Louis, who after working for two cities in Massachusetts after graduation from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, made what he considered a very important decision, "To work there or come back here."

Frankiewicz said it was a decision concerning living in a bigger home and making more money but "I came back because I love it here and I want to see this city improve."

He stated he helped form the current system of government, a change from the former city government of Bay St. Louis, which he referred to as "the strong mayor" government.

That change included the establishment of the current voting districts. A change he declared "presents better representation to the citizens of Bay St. Louis."

Louis

Frankiewicz stated he had worked for Gulf Coast Regional Planning but quit "because I felt they were wasting tax payer's dollars, and I didn't like it and I didn't want to work for them."

He stated the most important issues are "good city management" and a "cooperative attitude" in dealing with elected councilmen.

"You will need both if Bay St. Louis is to progress," he said.

"There is only one fact that you must realize. There is only so much money and we would be fooling ourselves to think that Bay St. Louis is going to come into a lot of money."

For this reason Frankiewicz stated it is necessary to "try to use what money we have available as efficiently as possible."

"We will continue to get federal funds, but we need an administration that will really go after those funds," he said.

Frankiewicz said he was familiar with ways to obtain federal money and programs in the federal government which make that money available.

He used recreational funds as an example, stating they are currently "more available" than other types of funds.

Frankiewicz said the city needed utility rate reform "to help some of the smaller users."

"The larger users are not paying their fair share," he stated.

He also stated he felt the city should work toward better maintenance and repair of the gas, water and sewer system.

"We can cut costs through simply routine maintenance, and that money can be used for other projects needed throughout the city."

Larry Bennett

Mayor Larry stated, "Four years ago I asked you to elect me as mayor and promised that if elected I would be mayor for all the people all of the time. I have tried to live up to the promise. I made," he said.

In terms of growth in the city, Bennett said there have been improvements, but the city still "has a long way to go."

He noted he has not raised taxes during his administration.

In terms of applying for federal money, Bennett said an Outdoor Recreation application for funds need to improve Washington Street Park and "other areas" has been filed for over two years.

"I have called and asked about the application and although we have not received the money they certainly know that the application is in," he said.

The mayor said the council is currently involved with one engineering firm.

"It is much easier for the council and mayor to work with one engineering firm," he said.

At one point in the history of Bay St. Louis the council was involved with five engineering firms, the mayor said.

He added, "That was ridiculous."

Bennett said people complain about the high cost of the utility bill.

"So is the grocery bill, the dry cleaning bill, gas and lights. I don't like it any better than you do. I am not happy when I have to write out a check," he said.

"Everything is life is going up. I cannot say I will lower rates but I will be working with the council to try and make them lower," he added.

Bennett also pointed to the heads of various city departments, stating he appointed a black police and fire chief.

"If elected I do not plan to make any department head changes," he said.

"And if there is a way we can possibly place someone in a higher position then we will achieve it," he said.

He also stated that every committee in the city had "at least one black member of the community."

The mayor also pointed to paving work on Keller Street, Sycamore Street, Dunbar Avenue, Main Street and a parking lots by Bay Senior High School and the North Bay Elementary school, achieved through "cooperation with the Hancock County Board of Supervisors" during his administration.

"I have lived on Citizen street for 40 years and during that time my home has always been open to everybody. Even if I am not elected our home will still be open to everyone," he stated.

"I am raising a family and trying to pay for a home and business here, so you know I am here to stay. I hope you let me stay in City Hall to be your mayor for all of you all of the time," he concluded.

Also speaking at the meeting were qualified candidates Wilmer Seymour seeking reelection as councilman-at-large, Mike Benvenutti also seeking the councilman-at-large position, Clyde Ladner and Clarence Ladner seeking Ward Two seats, Herta Lewis Smith, Charles Johnson and incumbent Harry Farve seeking Ward Three Seats, and Tom Clark currently not registered, also seeking the Ward Three seat.

The candidates meeting was sponsored by Concerned Citizens of Hancock County, the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement to Colored People and the Hancock County Veterans Civic Organization.

Three hospitalized in Hancock wrecks

By BRENT MACEY

Two Waveland men were hospitalized Tuesday night for treatment of injuries sustained in a one-car accident on the Kiln-Waveland Cutoff Road approximately one mile north of US-90.

In addition, a Waveland woman is still in Hancock General Hospital following an accident March 21 at the intersection of US-90 and Nicholson Avenue.

Rocky J. Gugino, 26, of Waveland was transferred to Gulfport Memorial Hospital following initial treatment at Hancock General Hospital in Bay St. Louis to stabilize his condition after the Tuesday night accident.

He is reported in good condition suffering a fractured pelvis, according to a spokesman at Memorial Hospital.

His brother, Rodney A. (Tony) Gugino, 20, also of Waveland is listed in good condition at Hancock General Hospital, Philip Langston, hospital administrator said Wednesday.

Waveland Police Chief Donald Dorn said the accident occurred at approximately 5:55 p.m. when Rocky Gugino, driving a 1977 gold Pontiac Grand Prix, lost control of the vehicle and failed to negotiate a turn.

Dorn said the vehicle skidded 190 feet before leaving the roadway, uprooted a pine tree and travelled an additional 90 feet before striking another pine tree and coming to rest upside down.

Dorn said "excessive speed" caused the accident.

No charges have been filed, the chief said.

The Waveland Fire Department and a Mobile Medic Unit were also called to the scene just north of the power station on the cutoff road.

Waveland Patrolman Claude Yarborough said Tony Gugino was thrown from the car and was lying beside the passenger door of the vehicle when the officer arrived shortly after the accident.

"It took a while for the mobile medics to apply the neck brace and remove him by stretcher so rescuers could get into the car," Yarborough said.

Jaws of Life, a hydraulic emergency tool which can separate crushed metal, was used by rescuers to gain access to Rocky Gugino who was trapped in the car.

Workers at the scene said the driver's legs were trapped under the dashboard and also the door was jammed, requiring the Jaws of Life.

Yarborough said the driver's side door was so crushed that it would have been "almost impossible" to reach the victim from that side of the car.

As a result of the earlier accident, Sandra "Sharp" 31, of Waveland, remains in Hancock General Hospital. She was injured in a two-truck collision at the corner of Nicholson Avenue and US-90 March 21 at approximately 1:20 a.m.

Scharp, who reported on her condition from the hospital Wednesday said she is suffering extensive back injuries and is receiving traction twice daily.

Waveland Police Officer John Wilkerson said a Ford pickup truck driven by Patricia English, 39, of River Ridge, La. failed to yield right of way when approaching US-90 while heading north on Nicholson Avenue.

Wilkerson said a red light flashes at the intersection after midnight for vehicles traveling on that road.

A Toyota pickup truck traveling east on US-90 driven by Dennis Rutherford, 27, of Waveland, struck the English pickup in the rear left wheel area, the patrolman said.

"The Ford pickup ended up on the west bound lane of US-90 facing east. It was almost totally spun around," he said.

English and her husband Roy English, 51, a passenger in the Ford pickup truck, were transferred to Hancock General Hospital by Mobile Medic.

Scharp and Rana Mayfield, 36, of Bay St. Louis, another passenger in the Toyota pickup, were brought to the hospital by patrol car.

"Rutherford did not have to go to the hospital," Wilkerson added.

Scharp said all other parties involved in the accident were treated and released the same night of the accident.

Man arrested on drug charge

By BRENT MACEY

A Shoreline Park resident was arrested Saturday by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department and charged with possession of a controlled substance and possession of a firearm after conviction of a felony.

James M. Oakes, 43, was released on $5,000 bond Monday, Sheriff's Department Investigator Alvin Ladner said.

Ladner said members of the sheriff's department and the Waveland Police Department went to Oakes' residence Saturday after obtaining a search warrant from Justice Court Judge Lee Klein.

"We knocked on the screen door and Oakes came to the door. When he saw us he headed for the bedroom," the investigator said.

Ladner said police forced the door open to gain entrance. During the search 46 pills and a 12 gauge double barrel shotgun loaded with .00 buckshot were located.

"We believe the pills are seconal, a barbiturate," Ladner said.

Six shotgun shells were also discovered in Oakes' pockets, Ladner said.

"Three were slugs and three were .00 buckshot," he stated.

Ladner said Oakes said he had formerly served nine years in Angola prison in Louisiana.

The investigator said a "confidential informer" led law enforcement officials to the scene.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGE
Richard Pate, 33 of Bay St. Louis was arrested and charged with embezzlement by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department Tuesday.

Sheriff's Department Investigator Alvin Ladner said Pate, an advisor to Explorer Scout Post 615 in Diamondhead, allegedly wrote checks from a scout account in the amount of $260 to cover some personal bills.

Bond was set at $5,000.

Ladner said a fellow advisor to the Scout post signed the affidavit which led to Pate's arrest.

AWAITING TRANSFER

A Bayou Phillips area man was arrested by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department Tuesday and charged with receiving stolen property. Sheriff's Department Investigator Alvin Ladner said Robert M. Santone, 54, allegedly was found in possession of a car stolen from Georgia.

Ladner said Santone allegedly switched Georgia license plates from the stolen car with Mississippi license plates taken from another of Santone's vehicles.

Santone is awaiting transfer to Georgia to face charges.

Ladner said Santone has signed the necessary extradition papers for his transfer.

Hancock County Sheriff's Department Investigator Delbert Seay made the arrest, Ladner said.

MAE says public funds necessary

The Mississippi Association of Educators' Representative Assembly recently sent a resolution to the Mississippi Congressional delegation calling for full support and influence to help retain federal public education funding programs.

Jerry Brumfield, MAE president, says the resolution was sent on behalf of the 480,000 public school children and the 100,000 college-university students in Mississippi.

"Mississippi needs and depends heavily upon federal assistance in funding its public education program.

Since it is a low per-capita income state, Mississippi would be penalized more than any other state by cutbacks in federal assistance to education," the resolution states.

"Mississippi's educational program, seriously underfunded as it already is, would suffer more than would the program of any other state, Mississippi's children would be the victims," the resolution adds.

The delegates called upon all Mississippians to join in this effort to preserve needed funding for public education.

Jackson livestock show growth evident

The Dixie National Livestock Show has come of age, says Jim Buck Ross, Mississippi's commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce.

"The Junior Roundup for 4-H and Future Farmers of America youngsters was the largest ever and expected to continue growing," Ross states.

"This year, the youngsters showed 1,308 animals, about 100 more than last year," he notes.

"The emphasis on youth and family involvement are the driving forces that keep the youth shows growing," Ross explains.

"I can't think of anything more wonderful for the future of our state than a program which brings together families and helps teach our youngsters where our food comes from," he says.

"Even though the open shows for professional breeders were down slightly this year due to the economy, The Dixie National remains the largest spring livestock show east of the Mississippi River," Ross reports.

"The professional showmen brought 1,140 head of cattle and hogs to Jackson for the Dixie National, about 100 fewer than last year," he says.

"The smoothness with which the shows ran and the quality of facilities at the Mississippi Fairgrounds and Coliseum keep the livestock and their owners contented," he states.

"The Dixie National's reputation for top quality facilities and shows have spread throughout the cattle industry," Ross notes.

"For 1981, fairgrounds director Billy Orr expanded the size of the hog show arena and added stalls for the larger number of swine coming to the Dixie National," Ross states.

"Right now, Orr is looking for additional space to place horses as those shows continue to expand. This year, Palomino breeders joined Appaloosa, Paint, and Quarter horse breeders at the Dixie National. Between the four breeds, more than 1,800 horses appeared at the Dixie National this year," Ross reports.

"The professional showmen

Janelle Griffin of Bay St. Louis, not shown, teacher at North Bay Elementary, also received a contribution for that school's EMR program. ## Mississippi Power asks wholesale rate increase Mississippi Power Company Wednesday reported it has filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission in Washington, D.C., revisions in its tariff, increasing wholesale electric rates applicable to electric power associations.

Alan Barton, company president, said the new wholesale rates will increase Mississippi Power Company's annual revenue by slightly more than $7 million.

The company is requesting the commission to allow the new rates to become effective June 1, 1981.

Mississippi Power Company provides electric service to three electric power associations at 38 delivery points in southeast Mississippi.

Mississippi Power Company supplies all of the energy requirements for Coast Electric Power Association of Bay St. Louis and a portion of the requirements for Singing River Electric Power Association of Lucedale and East Mississippi Electric Power Association of Meridian.

Barton said the increase in wholesale electric rates is being requested because of "continuing adverse effects of double-digit inflation on Mississippi Power Company."

"Our rates are structured so that the cost of electric service to our customers will be at the lowest practicable level consistent with sound financial principles; however, rates must be sufficient to meet constantly increasing expenses and to enable the company to raise the capital necessary to meet present and future energy requirements of a growing southeast Mississippi," Barton said.

Mississippi Power Company's last increase in rates for wholesale electric service was filed in June 1979, he said. "The FERC permitted them to become effective October 1, 1979, subject to refund and the case ultimately was settled in May, 1980," Barton pointed out.

Sheriff lists phone numbers

Due to the increasing number of business calls to the Hancock County Sheriff's Department and also for the convenience of citizens of Hancock County, Sheriff Ronald Peterson announced additional telephone numbers connecting his department.

Both 467-5101 and 467-5277 can be used to reach the Sheriff's department," Peterson said. "Although many people are only aware of the 467-5101 number.

Toll free numbers are also available for people outside the 467 exchange, Peterson said.

Those toll free numbers are 799-8555 for members of the Poyayune Community and 864-8941 for the Gulfport-Biloxi area.

In addition, 911 is an emergency number for the 467 exchange, the sheriff stated.

Peterson said the numbers have been in existence for quite some time although many people are unaware of their existence.

"Your continued cooperation is appreciated," he added.

Slidell theater opens comedy

Minacappelli's Dinner Theatre is currently featuring Alan Ayckbourne's "How The Other Half Loves."

The offering opened March 27 for a five week run.

The play is the story of three couples who work for the same company, and when the wives have an affair with the husband of another, both parties use their concern for a third couple as an excuse for late night shenanigans.

Predictably, the innocent couple is invited for an evening of dinner, confusion and high farce. The play is directed by Robert N. Cronin, the director of the off-off-off Broadway Players.

"How The Other Half Loves" will run through April 27.

Performances are at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, Friday and Saturday preceded by a 6:30 p.m. buffet, and at 2:30 p.m. Sunday preceded by a 1 p.m. buffet.

For reservations, call the club in Slidell, 1-504-643-9671.

News channel plans Space Shuttle celebration week

Cable News Network's midday news show, "Take Two," on Hancock Community Cable Channel 10, will dedicate the week of April 6 to "Space Week" in celebration of the expected launch of the space shuttle.

Chris Curle and Don Farmer, the husband and wife anchor team of the show, will spend the week talking with astronauts, interviewing space technology spokesmen, chatting with authors on space concepts, and touring the Air and Space Museum in Washington," a cable company spokesman says.

Glimpses of anticipated events are:

—An interview with Neil Armstrong, first man on the moon;

—Chats with the "Voice of Mission Control";

—Discussion with science fiction author Ray Bradbury;

—Talks with the U. N. Commission on the peaceful uses of space;

—Interviews with some of the first astronauts, Alan Shepard and John Glenn;

—A look into space tragedies with an investigator of the Apollo One fire.

Network bureaus will also add to "Space Week" with visits to space centers in all parts of the country including —The Goddard Space Flight Center in D.C.,

—Johnson Space Center in Houston,

—The Hayden Planetarium in New York and —Saturn rocket testing in Huntsville.

"Regular network contributors are joining the program with how space technology affects their field of expertise," the spokesman says.

"Dr. Michael Ozer, host of "Medicine and Your Health," reports on the application of space medicine and —John Holliman, host of "The Week in Agriculture," demonstrates the relationship between agriculture and satellite forecasting," the spokesman reports.

"The anchor team will tour Washington D.C.'s Air and Space Museum and will take the audience on a mini-tour each day showing some of the museum's most notable exhibits.

Vic Franckiewicz a new mayor

Progress under our strong mayor form of government depends on good management in the mayor's office.

Professionally, my qualifications are a master's degree in city planning, and seven years of experience in government. But on a more personal level, I am a native of Bay St. Louis. I grew up here, and I know the kind of place Bay St. Louis can be. Like my parents before me, and my grandparents before them, I want this community to improve and prosper.

With a $3 million budget, it is only fair to expect Bay St. Louis to be a better city.

Public support asked for house pet program

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The Bay-Waveland Humane Society, Inc. is collecting weight markers from certain dog food containers to reinstate its house pet spay-neutering program.

Local residents are asked to contribute these throw-away items to the humane society.

Lolly Backlund of Waveland, society president, reports weight markers from certain Gaines and Purina products will be redeemed to support the society project.

"The humane society has been accepted by both of these companies to participate in this redemption program. These funds will help revive our spay-neutering program," she explains.

"Our funds have been exhausted and we have had to terminate this service for Hancock County pet owners," Backlund reports.

The society president says when funds are available the organization will pay pet owners $20 toward each male or female cat or dog sterilized.

"We have people begging us to place them on our list for funds, but we can't help them right now," Backlund states.

"This indicates people are aware and concerned about the health and welfare of these helpless creatures," she notes.

Backlund says Gaines' Professional Weight Marker Feeder Plan requires weight markers (including net weight) from the lower right portion of dry food packages and labels from canned food.

Gaines products eligible for redemption are:

—Cycle dry dog food No. One, Two, Three and Four in 25, 10 and five-pound sacks;

—Cycle canned dog food No. One, Two, Three and Four in 14-ounce containers;

—Gaines Meal and Gravy Train in 50, 25, 10 and five pound sacks;

—Prime, Prime Variety, Top Choice and Puppy Choice in 36 ounce and four-pound eight-ounce packages;

—Gaines Burgers in 18 and 36-ounce and four-pound eight-ounce packages;

—Gaines Biscuits in 26-ounce packages.

The group president also reports Purina Professional Club requires weight circles only from 20, 25, 30, 40 and 50-pound sacks of Purina Dog Chow, Purina High Protein Dog Meal, Chuck Wagon, Fit-N-Trim, Dinner Mix, Moist and Chunky, Butcher's Blend, Mainstay, Homestyle Blend, Hero Adult Dog Food, Hero Growth Food, Purina Puppy Chow Puppy Food and Bonz Dog Sacks.

Backlund notes, "If anyone is in doubt of what they should save from these containers or person's who don't want to be bothered with clipping should simply save the entire package or cans."

"Humane society members will be glad to perform the necessary package clipping or can soaking to remove labels," she states.

Backlund says society members will also pick-up quantities of these containers if residents call 467-5765 or 467-9548.

Individuals who prefer mailing labels and/or weight markers should address packages to Bay-Waveland Humane Society, Inc., P. O. Box 471, Waveland, Miss. 39576.

Hancock quarterhorse wins Oak Downs feature

(Special to The Sea Coast Echo)

PEARL RIVER—Oscar Meyer, a Hancock County horse returning to top form in the past several weeks, easily won the feature race for quarterhorses Sunday at Oak Downs.

Owned by Oswald Moran and trained by Clyde Moran, both of The Kiln, Oscar Meyer posted an impressive Class AAA clocking of 18.24 seconds in the 350-yard test.

Getting a poor start and running far back was Dial's Girl, owned by Albert Gaston of Wilmer, Ala. Dial's Girl was timed in :19.01.

Three weeks ago, Oscar Meyer ran second by a half a length in a $3,000 feature race at Oak Downs.

Sunday's race was run on a track made heavy by sporadic rains. Jeff Peterman of Gulfport was in the irons.

The closest race of the day came following the feature as Gerald Averett's Donna Falana, formerly owned by the Morans, nipped Richard Graham's Boss Injun by a nose.

Ridden by Oak Downs' leading jockey JoAnn Boatwright of Cantonment, Fla., Donna Falana was clocked in :14.09 while Boss Injun was timed in :14.10. The race covered 250 yards.

In a highly-competitive three-furlong race, House Party, owned and trained by Alton Silkwood of Gulfport, was a winner in :37.65 over four other horses.

Marty Comfort, who rode House Party to the victory, also won three other races for individual riding honors Sunday.

The Hancock County jockey has 26 wins for the year, only one behind Picaune's Leo Fricke, whose two wins Sunday gave him 27 for the year.

JoAnn Boatwright is the leader by far with 55 victories, but experienced a rare off-day with only two wins Sunday. She had been averaging close to five wins each outing.

Harrison County horses took six of Sunday's 15 races. St. Tammany accounted for four wins and Tangipahoa Parish had three.

Next Sunday's feature race will pit a pair of top quarterhorses going 250 yards. Bill's Paid, owned by Charles Curtis of Hancock County, will go against Boss Injun, owned by Richard Graham who lives in Harrison County near Hancock County's Dedaux community.

The entry fee in the feature race is $600. Both owners have put up $100 forfeit fees. Jeff Peterman of Gulfport will ride Bill's Paid while Ray Robbins of Grand Bay, Ala., will be aboard Boss Injun.

Another top race next Sunday will have Jessie's Beauty going against Some Kind of Bad in a 440-yard test.

Two other races have been booked for Sunday. The first race will be run over a distance of 1/2 mile with Hold The Pickles, Shorty's Dream and Floyd Jr. comprising the field. Little Jimmy will tangle with Levy in the 440-yard second race.

ripped off a Class AAA clocking of 18.24 seconds to easily turn back challenger Dial's Girl, an Alabama horse. Jeff Peterman of Gulfport is in the irons. The Morans are from The Kiln.

Rock-A-Chaws

St. Stanislaus embarrassed Our Lady of Victories, 18-4, in a game cut to four innings because of the one-sided score in Bay St. Louis Saturday afternoon.

The Rock-A-Chaws pounded out 14 hits while raising the team batting average to .316.

Gus Aime earned the win in relief of Brian Logan. Logan connected for two hits and three runs batted in.

Andrew Haas, Bruce Cabell, and Dennis Scardino each had two RBIs.

The win improved the Rock's record to 8-4 overall and 2-0 in conference play, as the OLV pitching staff failed to record a single strike out.

Sean Logan is leading the Rocks with a .441 batting average, having hammered out 15 hits in 34 at bats, scoring 11 runs and driving in 7. Steve Farve, at .381, Andrew Haas, .350, Dennis Scardino, .353, and Bruce Cabell, at .316, account for the high team batting average.

Haas is also the ace of the pitching staff with 4 wins and only one loss, and a 2.43 ERA. Haas has recorded 43 strike outs. Brian Logan (2-1) has a 0.00 earned run average in 16 one-third innings.

Haas also leads the club in run production with 12 RBIs. Catcher Joe Gex has 10 RBIs.

St. Stanislaus will host the East Central Hornets in a conference contest Friday afternoon at 4 p.m.

"This is a very important game for us," Rock-A-Chaw coach Fred Weems pointed out.

In the Pascagoula River Conference, each team usually plays all the other teams in the conference twice, with only one of the contests counting in the standings.

Early in the season the Rocks lost to East Central in a non-conference baseball game.

Bay Sr. High TIGERS

Scotty Adam pitched a two-hitter and recorded 15 strikeouts to lead the Bay High Tigers to a 8-1 romp over the St. John Eagles in Bay St. Louis Monday night.

Adam improved his win-loss record to 2-3, and the team upped its record to 6-5 for the year.

David Strong and Adam each had two hits. Bobby Richardson and Hooty Adam reached base with triples.

Strong is leading the Tigers with a .520 batting average, but Scotty Adam is close behind with a .480 mark.

Catcher Mark Breland is tops in the RBI department with 13. David Strong has an earned run average of 1.2 and 3 wins and 1 loss in pitching.

Bay High will host West Lauderdale Friday at 7 p.m. and Saturday at 1 p.m. David Strong is scheduled to pitch Friday with Scotty Adam doing the work on Saturday.

"West Lauderdale is always tough," Tiger coach Eddie Carnley reported. "They're in the state play offs almost every year."

"I'm a little disappointed we don't have more fans. Sometimes the visiting club has more fans than we do," Carnley explained. "I could understand if we had a bad ball club that played sloppy ball," the Tiger coach added.

Bay High's record is 6-5 and four of the five losses have been by one run.

"Two players have already qualified for the Clairiol Crown, which offers automatic berths to the current U.S. Open champion, the reigning Wimbledon titlist and the winner of the 1981 Winter Tour Championship. A Wild Card selection completes the draw," the spokesman explains.

"Chris Evert Lloyd, who capped an outstanding 1980 campaign by winning her fifth U.S. Open title, was the first player to qualify for the 1981 crown. She also won the French, Italian and Canadian Open Championships, and finished 1980 ranked as the number one player in the world," the spokesman says.

"Also in the exclusive field as a wild card entry is defending champion Tracy Austin, winner of the 1979 U.S. Open and ranked number two in the world. Austin captured last year's crown, turning back Martina Navratilova, and Evert won the inaugural crown in 1978, defeating Bruce Bowman and Scott Favre also had one run batted in each.

Hancock traveled to East Central Thursday where they were stung, 6-5, by the Hornets.

beverages increase the body's need for water.

The Senate Select Committee's Dietary Goals for the United States include the recommendation that we increase our consumption of foods of high fiber content, such as whole wheat, brown rice, potatoes, corn, beans, greens and fruits, and that we decrease our intake of refined sugar as in soft drinks, cakes, pies and jellies.

Other recommendations from the committee deal with fat, our most concentrated source of heat and energy. If we pour cream instead of low-fat milk on our cereal, follow this with ham, bacon or sausage and eggs, have all our vegetables cooked with fat, enjoy marbled steaks and fried foods, indulge often in buttered breads or rich desserts, then we consume more than the recommended 30 percent of our calories as fat.

When we eat more fat than we burn, the depositing of fatty streaks on the inside of blood vessels can begin, even in childhood, contributing to heart or blood vessel disease, high blood pressure and diabetes.

Excess fat in the diet is suspect of causing cancer of the colon, breast, prostate and uterus.

Most Americans add too much salt to that which is naturally present in nearly all foods, especially those of animal origin. Salt is used in the preservation of bacon, pickles, mustard, catsup and sauerkraut.

Sodium, which is the culprit in salt, is included in baking soda, baking powder, all carbonated drinks, many laxatives and anti-acids, and even in chewing tobacco.

Cutting back on salt intake has a blood pressure lowering potential and a generally beneficial effect on the cardiovascular system and kidneys.

Vitamins do not give us energy, though they do allow proteins, carbohydrates, and fats to release energy. They also help calm nerves, clot blood, protect against infections, smooth skin, build bones and teeth, improve vision and promote growth, reproduction and lactation.

All the 17 known vitamins are available in food. Foods are the best and least expensive source of vitamins. While no one food will supply us with all the essential vitamins, choosing a wide variety of foods from all four of the basic food groups will insure adequate vitamin intake.

Minerals present in food are needed for building and regulating body functions. Taking too much of one essential mineral may upset the balance and function of other minerals. Like vitamins, minerals should be taken as supplements only on orders from a physician.

In spite of our knowledge that the onset of nearly all disease is delayed or many cases prevented by the maintenance of ideal body weight throughout life, obesity is the most prevalent and visible form of malnutrition. Fifty million Americans are so affected.

The best way to lose weight and maintain the loss is to eat in the correct amounts fruits, vegetables, lean, trimmed, baked or broiled meat, fish or fowl, skim milk and milk products, and whole grains, cereals and beans.

PRC drops two in net action

Perk and Meredian registered wins over Pearl River College in team tennis action last week.

The Wildcat netters dropped a 6-2 decision to Perk on Monday and fell to Meredian 5-3 Thursday on the Pearl River courts.

At Perkinson, the ladies' doubles were the only bright spot for the River. In the A doubles, Debbie Howard and Fran Sallinger teamed up to claim identical 6-1, 6-1 set wins over Teresa Temple and Cindy Tipton. B doubles saw Lawana Johnson and Tedora Hookfin sweep Regina Hendrick and Gail Anderson in straight sets 6-0, 6-4.

Men's doubles found Cliff Crandall and Reed Houston falling 0-6, 6-4, 0-6 in A play and Mike Williamson and John Romero dropping 3-6, 0-6 in B action.

In women's singles, Debbie Cox lost in straight sets 2-6, 2-6 as did Susan Corley 0-6, 1-6. River standout Don Fayard was topped in three sets, 0-6, 6-4, 2-6 by Kevin Sherman in A single's action and Greg Cannon was swept 0-6, 1-6 in B.

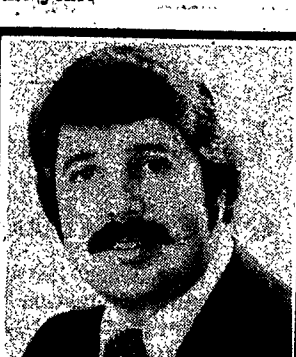

Thursday, the doubles' squads again proved to be the bright spot as both men's and women's teams.

Crandall and Houston swept Rod Leifried and Phillip Emerson in 6-2, 6-0 sets, and Don Lewis and John Romero won due to forfeit. Again, Johnson and Hookfin notched victories with a three-set, 6-0, 1-6, 6-1 win.

Fayard and Williamson both dropped singles contests, Fayard 0-6, 1-6, 6-1, and Williamson 0-6, 0-6. Cox and Corley were also swept in women's singles in straight sets, Cox by the score of 2-6, 3-6, and Corley 0-6, 0-6.

In the A doubles for the women, Cox and Howard dropped 3-6, 1-6 sets. The two team defeats dropped Pearl River to 0-2 for the year.

Annual Sunrise Service slated

The annual ecumenical Easter Sunrise Service, sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and the Bay St. Louis-Waveland Pastor's Conference, has been scheduled for Easter morning April 19 at 6 a.m., on the lawn of Christ Episcopal Church, South Beach Boulevard, Bay St. Louis.

Attended last year by some 200 people, the event includes participation by ministers of various churches in the county.

"We feel this event, with participation by various faiths, is a true community effort, and we urge all people of all churches in Hancock County to come together as one group on Easter morning," a chamber spokesman said.

Musical selections will be provided, and coffee and doughnuts will be served following the service in Virginia Hall of Christ Episcopal Church.

First Baptist schedules Joni Eareckson movie

"Reflections of His Love," a new film highlighting the life and ministry of Joni Eareckson, will be shown Sunday at First Baptist Church, Main and Federal Streets in Bay St. Louis.

The color feature—produced by World Wide Pictures, a film ministry of the Billy Graham Association—will be shown at 7 p.m.

Miss Eareckson is the star of a recent theatrical motion picture 'Joni' which relates the story of a diving accident she encountered as a young girl, which left her paralyzed from the neck down.

The film chronicles her struggles to piece together her life and her faith in God in spite of the devastating circumstances.

In 'Reflections,' Miss Eareckson, who is also the author of the best-selling books 'Joni and A Step Further,' tells of transformations that have taken place in her life because of her willingness to accept all of the things that have happened to her.

"A remarkably talented young woman, Miss Eareckson is an artist of great merit as well as an author, actress, and singer," said Dr. Nathan Barber, pastor of First Baptist.

She has learned to draw and paint with a brush held in her mouth. Her works have been displayed in major exhibitions, as well as on a number of network television programs.

More recently, her illustrations and paintings have become the basis for a major line of greeting cards, plaques, and framed prints.

According to Rev. Barber, 'Reflections of His Love' introduces the viewer to "the real Joni Eareckson."

"We meet her parents, her sisters, and her friends. We gain insight into the thoughts of the actors who played major roles in the movie, Joni, and we learn of her new personal ministry, 'Joni and Friends,'" Barber added.

"The determination and the depth of trust and faith that this young lady has developed can serve as an inspiration to us all," he continued.

St. Clare students honor grandparents

St. Clare School recently held a special day to honor Grandparents.

The event began with a liturgy planned by the fifth grade students.

A banner proclaiming "Grandparents Are Great" hung in the sanctuary of the Church.

Students sat with their grandparents as all celebrated the Mass. The music for the liturgy was led by Sr. Elaine and members of her guitar group.

After Mass, grandparents and students went to the cafeteria for a lunch prepared by Mrs. Mary Heath and her staff. The cafeteria was decorated with flowers and mini posters.

Following lunch the grandparents were shown through the school by the seventh and eighth grade students. They then proceeded to the church where each class staged a special presentation for their grandparents and friends.

SPECIAL DAY—Father Bill Voller looks on as Jennifer Burrows reads an Offertory petition during the St. Clare Grandparents Day Liturgy.

GUESTS OF HONOR—Grandparents and friends sing along as they wait for the special program in their honor at St. Clare's Grandparents Day.

THIRD GRADE—The 3rd grade plays recorders and sings for their grandparents on Grandparents Day at St. Clare. Shannon Maggio leads the musicians and singers.

SIXTH GRADE—The play "Is Le Roy Guilty" was presented by the sixth grade class of St. Clare School for Grandparents Day. At the podium are Scott Comeaux and Sean Stakelum.

RHYTHM BAND—St. Clare's seventh and eighth grade girls formed a rhythm band and sang "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing" for their Grandparents Day presentation. Lisa Standiford, Missy Johnson and Melanie Peterman are on guitars.

CRAYON BOX—As colors in a crayon box the 2nd grade sang "The Crayon Box" as their presentation for Grandparents Day at St. Clare.

Annunciation to begin kindergarten operation

Annunciation School in Kila will begin operation of kindergarten classes on the school campus in September. The kindergarten program currently underway at the school has been operated by private interests using Annunciation classrooms.

"Our administration, faculty and students will open our hands and hearts to welcome the kindergarten children who will become the youngest members of the school family," said Sister Margaret Theresa, R.J.M., principal.

Kindergarten registration for the September program will be conducted in the school gymnasium from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. April 21 through 30. Classes in September will occupy the same site on the school grounds presently in use for those classes, the principal added.

For information, call 255-1889.

ETV to feature Twain war tale

Mark Twain's tale of the misadventures of a group of young men who join the Civil War in a quest for heroism and adventure comes to Mississippi Educational Television in a dramatization of Twain's "The Private

History of a Campaign that Failed."

The special program can be seen at 8 p.m., Monday, April 6, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

"Based on Twain's two weeks as a Missouri Confederate militaryman at the beginning of the war, 'The Private History of a Campaign that Failed' follows the naive rag-tag group of Marion County Rangers from their enthusiastic departure from Hannibal, Mo., to their shocked realization of what war really means," an ETV spokesman says.

"Confronted by a former Mexican war colonel who attempts to turn them into real soldiers, then faced with the tragedy of a stranger killed in ambush, the young men soon understand that war is, in the words of Twain, 'the killing of strangers against whom you feel no personal animosity; strangers whom, in other circumstances, you would help if you found them in trouble and who would help you if you needed it,'" the spokesman reports.

"The television dramatization, with guest stars Pat Hingle, Edward Herrmann and Wesley Addy, concludes with an epilogue adapted from Twain's 'The War Prayer.' The program is hosted by Kurt Vonnegut Jr.," the spokesman adds.

Caillier attends conference

Mary G. Caillier of Clermont Harbor was among participants in the 12th Key Conference for Recreators conducted in Natchez recently.

"Getting Involved" was the theme for this year's conference, sponsored by the Mississippi Municipal and Outdoor Recreation sections of the Mississippi Recreation and Park Association, coordinated by The University of Mississippi Division of Continuing Education.

Mathews, of Gulfport, also won the state vice presidency.

Named to Who's Who in PBL were Aileen Bennett and Blane Sauder, both of Gulfport; and Melba Caminiti, Biloxi.

Members attending the two-day event included Peggy Bourne, Dorothy McLauren, Ken Rafferty and Gloria Smith, all of Gulfport; Lorie Nugent, Sue Russell and Gary Williams, all of Biloxi; and Louis Pollio, Pass Christian.

PBL is an organization for college students preparing for careers in business and industry.

GI BILL

More than one half of the $51 billion spent since 1965 by the Veterans Administration on Vietnam Era veterans has gone for educational assistance payments under the GI Bill.

Cast, crew sought for play

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will conduct tryouts for "Barefoot in the Park" Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Playhouse on Boardman Avenue.

"Sherry Schwabacher and Mary Carter will co-direct the Neil Simon comedy, which has roles for four men and two women," a theatre spokesman reports.

"Included in the cast are a young newlywed couple, her mother, a debonair man about town, a telephone repairman, and a delivery man," the spokesman lists.

"The story centers around the first week in the life of the two newlyweds, who must cope with her mother, their problem ridden apartment, a bizarre neighbor, and the various events that complicate their married bliss," the spokesman explains.

"All parts must be cast. Workers are also needed for backstage crew, set design, and construction. No experience is necessary, just willingness to work," the spokesman adds.

CREATIVE IDEAS IN WOOD

There's nothing new about gumball machines. You'll find them in every grocery or department store, but none quite like Dr. Kennedy's Yearwood's gumball machine. It's a new twist in gumball machines. Rather than a simple pull-out and drop delivery mechanism, his gumball machine's delivery mechanism rotates and dumps a gumball into a pocket to be picked up.

His clever idea works like this: In the delivery shaft, a spiral groove is routed to ride over a dowel pin in the center block. As the delivery shaft is pulled, a hole drilled in the shaft catches a gumball and the shaft turns to dump the gumball into a shallow pocket in the base. The spiral groove and dowel pin are concealed, arousing the curiosity of everyone.

If you'd like the plans for this gumball machine, ask us for Idea No. 1827 and send $2 to Creative Ideas in Wood, c/o this newspaper, 750 Center Drive, Vandalia, Ohio 45377.

Woodworkers' Forum

Question: Whenever I try to tear sandpaper, I end up with a bad jagged edge. There's got to be a better way. How is it done?

For a quick, easy way to size sandpaper, attach a worn hacksaw blade to the edge of a scrap board with small screws.

The fine teeth of the blade will tear the sandpaper over the blade and tear down the fine teeth will make a clean cut every time.

To cut sandpaper, to fit your disc sander, trace the circular shape on the back side of the sandpaper with a sharp awl.

We're glad to answer wood-working questions from readers. Write us at our Vandalia address and please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope to help facilitate a quick reply.

The average lead pencil will draw a line 35 miles long or write about 50,000 words.

Health councils to elect regional representatives

The Mississippi Health Systems Agency, Inc. has scheduled public meetings for Mississippians to elect representatives to its 10 Subarea Advisory Councils throughout the state beginning on April 4, and ending April 18.

"These elections are conducted to select consumers and healthcare providers to the councils. SACs have a definite voice as to the increase or decrease of federal funds spent on health care for their respective areas," an agency spokesman says.

"These councils are part of the agency, a non-profit private agency, operating under federal health planning laws which tell states to end unnecessary medical-care duplications eating up federal funds," the spokesman explains.

"Under the National Health Planning Law, MSHA has a dual charge—to assure equal access to quality medical care and to control costs," the spokesman says.

"With escalation of prices today, cost containment has been emphasized by certificate-of-need review for new facilities construction or equipment purchase; appropriateness review for existing facilities; and review of grant applications for proposed utilization of federal funds," the spokesman lists.

"Each council is one of 10 geographical subareas of the state, consisting of at least six and no more than 15 counties. These election meetings are open to the public, and those attending will nominate and elect members to serve on the council for their subarea," the spokesman notes.

"Nominations will be received from the floor for persons to fill specific provider and consumer slots. Voting will be conducted by a show of hands and the election will be operated in accordance with the MSHA Public Elections Manual," the spokesman reports.

"Members of the 10 subarea councils serve staggered three-year terms so each year approximately one-third of the council membership will be open to election or re-election in some cases," the spokesman says.

"Additionally, some positions have been vacated and must be refilled through the annual elections," the spokesman notes.

"Special rules for conducting council elections have been developed by the MSHA from its experience with some 50 of these elections over the past five years," the spokesman reports.

"In essence, they follow relaxed forms of common parliamentary procedure, with the exceptions noted, and it is the policy of the MSHA Board of Directors that the presiding officer of each election should construe the rules of parliamentary law liberally in favor of facilitating public participation to the extent that can be done without disrupting the election process," the spokesman explains.

"It is not necessary for a person to know all of the special rules in order to participate. Keeping up with them and ensuring they are followed is the responsibility of the presiding officer. The election process proceeds in a step-by-step manner and each step will be explained," the spokesman states.

"All a person has to do to participate is be a registered voter in one of the counties in the SAC district involved; be present on the date, time, and place shown in the official public notice of the election; if he wishes to be nominated and expects to be absent, send a letter stating that he will serve if elected, together with a completed Biographical Form (Form may be obtained from the MSHA Office - 510 George St., Suite 400, Jackson, Miss. 39201 or by telephoning 948-8905; and ask the presiding officer to answer a question or explain any point that is uncertain," the spokesman explains.

For copies of special rules for SAC elections, or more information contact Harold B. Armstrong, assistant director, Plan Implementation (address listed above), or the local planner.

Election Schedule for Southern SAC is April 18 at Malone Hall Auditorium, Gulf Coast Junior College in Perkinston at 10 a.m. Southern SAC Planner is Ken Harris - Southern Miss. PDD, 1020 - 32nd Ave., Gulfport, Miss. 39501 or telephone 868-2311.

Deadwood Dick fractures Waveland Player crowds

By META GARSIDE
Players Publicist
"Deadwood Dick or, the Game of Gold" opened last weekend to wildly enthusiastic audiences! Directed by Ted Stechmann and Terry Simpson, a funnier melodrama has not graced local stages in years!

Written by Tom Taggart and based on the Dime Novels of Edward L. Wheeler, "Deadwood Dick" will be performed for the last time at the Waveland Civic Center on Coleman Avenue tomorrow and Saturday, April 3 and 4, at 8:15 p.m.

Tickets are $3 and are available only at the door. All seats are good, but come early to claim one! Doors will open at 7:30 p.m.

For an evening of dinner-theatre, the Waveland Players will present "Deadwood Dick" at the Diamondhead Country Club on Friday, April 10, by reservation only, which we are told are going like hotcakes.

Based in the Wild-West of the Gay 90's, all action takes place in Calamity Jane's Man-Trap Saloon. The Waveland Players have the Civic Center set up so that the audience is part and parcel of the action-packed play. And take part they did: the laughs, boos, cheers and popcorn were flying!

The talent-packed cast is headed by Walter Vaughn as Black'n Red, a true-black villain; with the other major roles superbly performed by Anthony Poffenberger as Ned Harris, Frank Richter as Wild Bill Hickok, Susan Smith as Lily Blossom, Elizabeth Hart as Rose Blossom, Ed Craig as Judge Nix, Barbara Jo Fitch as Calamity Jane, Hansel Baxter as La Paloma, Jeanne-Marie Bell as Pong-Ping, Ed Ling as Chet Pussy, Bunk Gardner as Sheriff Loveless, Dottie Overal as Milly Loveless, Edith Bierhorst Back as Teetotal Tessie, and Pam Baumgartner as Piano Annie.

They are ably assisted by Darrel Cholina, Terry Simpson, and Derek Stechmann as Miners; Jeanie Moran and Herta Lewis as Tessie's Crusaders; and Janet Aime, Beryl Lynch, Frances Mitteer, Caroline Adam, Catchie Cholina, Alla Mae Lambert, Jannelle McLain, Barbara Pursley, Amy Welch, Nicola Dietrich, Connie Moran, Teresa Ehrlich, Monica Parker, Hansel Baxter (La Paloma), Christy McNeal, and Piccola Dietrich as Saloon Girls.

Extra added entertainment is provided by the Sweet Adelines Quartet, the Before and After Barbershop Quartet, Dick Fitch, Janet Aime, Caroline Adam, and Jannelle McLain. Mention must be given to the outstanding and dedicated crew of "Deadwood Dick", the unsung heroes of any production. Director Ted Stechmann has nothing but praise for Frank Gray (lighting), Danny Williams (spot), Jean Keen (accompanist), Piccola Dietrich (choreography and costumes), Dick Fitch (producer and sound), yours truly (program, publicity, and script), Dick Fitch, Terry Simpson, Darrel Cholina, and Tim Whitworth (set construction) Ken Matthew (set decoration), Norma Simpson (tickets), Joe Overal and Sid Dousan (concessions), Nan Bradley, Kay Ladner, and Dottie Overal (make-up), and Jeanne-Marie Bell and Edith Bierhorst Back (publicity).

HIGH DRAMA—What foul deed do these conspirators have in mind for poor Lily Blossom? The villains are, left to right, Black'n Red, Calamity Jane, Chet Pussy, and La Paloma.

DEADWOOD DICK SCENE—Wild Bill Hickok, right, comes to the rescue of Ned Harris, left, as he shoots the pistol from Black'n Red's hand! Also in on the action are Chet Pussy, Saloon Girl, Calamity Jane, and Pong-Ping.

Trio performing Sunday at theatre

The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre and the Hancock County Library System Sunday will co-sponsor "Touch" a Mime Trio, to kick-off National Library Week.

Tickets are on sale at the Bay St. Louis Library and at children's matinee for $2 a person and a 7 p.m. adult performance for $3 a person at the Little Theatre on Boardman Avenue, a theatre spokesman says.

Tickets are on sale at the Bay St. Louis Library and at the door. "In their original mime pieces, Touch hows human life on earth from zany to serious, with spontaneous improvisation on ideas from the audience," the spokesman reports.

"We are extremely fortunate to have secured the talents of this mime trio, and we hope that one and all will take advantage of this opportunity to see this group perform," a library spokesman says.
